Case No.: C 11-05380 SBA

STIPULATION AND ORDER
EXTENDING TIME TO FILE
RESPONSIVE PLEADING

20 Plaintiff Claudia B. Hillary and Defendant City of Point Arena, by and through 21 their counsel undersigned stipulate to an order changing time for the City to file a
22 responsive pleading including a motion to dismiss in response to Hillary's first 23 amended complaint. The parties agree that the deadline for the City to respond is 24 moved to October 12, 2012. The reason for the stipulation is that the parties are 25 engaged in good faith settlement negotiations with Magistrate Judge Cousins and 26 believe that a settlement may be reached shortly. The parties previously submitted a 27 stipulation to modify the date to October 10, which the Court has not yet signed, but the 28 parties now need an additional two days to attempt to reach settlement.

1 This stipulation is requested pursuant to Federal Fed. R. CIV. P. 12 and Local 2 Rules 6-2 and 7-12.
